

Black Law Student Association

OVERVIEW: The Toledo College of Law Chapter of The Black Law Students Association ("BLSA") is part of a national organization formed to articulate and promote the needs and goals of law students and effectuate change in the community. BLSA is an organization that promotes diversity, by catering to people of all kind. This is evident by The National Black Law School Association's assistance in the formation of The National Latino/Latina Student Association ("NLLSA"), The National Asian Pacific American Law Student Association, as well as The National Association of Law Students with Disabilities ("NALSD")

MEMBER BENEFITS/ACTIVITIES: Scholarships, 25th Annual Torrence Green Scholarship Banquet, Outline Bank, Supplemental Books for ALL first year classes, Study Aids, Soul Food Luncheon, Academic Retreat -- where you learn things such as resume writing, participate in an exam taking workshop, and an interview seminar.

First Meeting: SEPTEMBER 9, 2009 @ NOON—location TBD
